PINCH Event

Coffeyville PINCH (People for Institutional & Communal Harmony) is using the church facility to host "Moving from Concepts to Action for Racial Justice in Community and Churches" on September 15th (1pm-5pm) and September 16th (9am to 4pm). They are bringing in Rev. Michelle Ledder from the United Methodist General Commission on Religion and Race in Washington D.C. to guide the conversation and move us to action in our churches and community. This is a free event and is open to the public. While it was being planned previous to the events in Charlottesville, it is a timely conversation.
